† Corrected 2 August 2026. This row previously read "St Kitts & Nevis Patriots 180/3 (17) beat Saint Lucia Kings (H) 177/3" — the two team names were transposed. As printed it made Saint Lucia 4–4 and St Kitts 5–5, contradicting the final table in section 2. With the names the right way round, the reconstruction in `data/cpl_2025.json` reproduces the published Pld, W, L, NR, Pts and NRR to three decimals for all six teams; every other row was already correct.

4. What changed between 2025 and 2026

League structure

	2025	2026
Teams	6	7
Matches	34	39
Window	14 Aug – 21 Sep	7 Aug – 20 Sep
Final venue	Providence, Guyana	Kensington Oval, Barbados
Venues	6	8 — adds Sabina Park (Jamaica) and Arnos Vale (St Vincent)

Each team now plays ten league games instead of eight. St Vincent & the Grenadines hosts CPL matches for the first time, staging the opening three-match phase at Arnos Vale.

Franchises

Two changes, both material:

- Jamaica Kingsmen — new team. Jamaica returns after a seven-year absence. Confirmed February 2026, named March 2026. Rovman Powell captains, Grant Bradburn coaches. In the draft the Kingsmen held the first three picks, restricted to Jamaican players, and could take only one player from an existing squad.
- Barbados Royals are now the Barbados Tridents. Announced May 2026 under a "One Barbados" initiative — the Tridents name returns, the squad carries over largely intact. ~~This contradicts data/cpl_2026.json, which still lists "Barbados Royals".~~ Resolved 2 August 2026: the data file now carries Barbados Tridents (short BT), and the franchise inherits the Royals' 2025 record as its starting rating via priorFrom. Still outstanding: the crest and palette in that file are the Royals' pink/navy — the licensed Tridents artwork needs dropping in at public/logos/bt.png with the real colours, or the graphic falls back to a plain drawn badge.

Squad movement

Across the two seasons, 108 players in 2025 squads and 122 in 2026 squads. Counting the Royals→Tridents rebrand as one continuing franchise: 52 stayed put, 23 switched franchise, 33 left the league, 47 are new or returning.

MOVED TO	PLAYER	FROM
Jamaica Kingsmen	Rovman Powell (c)	Barbados
Jamaica Kingsmen	Andre Russell	Trinbago
Jamaica Kingsmen	Keacy Carty	Trinbago
Jamaica Kingsmen	Keemo Paul	Guyana
Jamaica Kingsmen	Hassan Khan	Guyana
Jamaica Kingsmen	Jediah Blades	Guyana
Jamaica Kingsmen	Odean Smith	Antigua
Jamaica Kingsmen	Shaqkere Parris	Barbados
St Kitts & Nevis	Obed McCoy	Antigua
St Kitts & Nevis	Kevin Wickham	Antigua
St Kitts & Nevis	Johnson Charles	Saint Lucia
St Kitts & Nevis	Micah McKenzie	Saint Lucia
Trinbago	Justin Greaves	Antigua
Trinbago	Dominic Drakes	St Kitts & Nevis
Trinbago	Jyd Goolie	St Kitts & Nevis
Antigua & Barbuda	Moeen Ali (c)	Guyana
Antigua & Barbuda	Evin Lewis	St Kitts & Nevis
Antigua & Barbuda	Alzarri Joseph	Saint Lucia
Saint Lucia	Jewel Andrew	Antigua
Saint Lucia	McKenney Clarke	Trinbago
Barbados Tridents	Gudakesh Motie	Guyana
Barbados Tridents	Shadrack Descarte	Saint Lucia
Guyana	Khary Pierre	Saint Lucia

The Kingsmen were assembled largely from other franchises' Caribbean players — eight of the 23 switches went to Jamaica.

Out of the league (in a 2025 squad, in no 2026 squad): Imad Wasim, Shakib Al Hasan, Naveen-ul-Haq, Bevon Jacobs, Allah Ghazanfar (Antigua); Azmatullah Omarzai, Jomel Warrican, Nyeem Young, Eathan Bosch (Barbados); Ben McDermott, Shamarh Brooks, Kemol Savory, Kevlon Anderson, Riyad Latif (Guyana); Rilee Rossouw, Fazalhaq Farooqi, Corbin Bosch, Mohammad Nawaz, Leniko Boucher, plus in-season replacements Mohammad Rizwan, Abbas Afridi, Babar Azam, Abdullah Shafique (St Kitts); David Wiese, Tim David, Tabraiz Shamsi, Delano Potgieter, Aaron Jones, Javelle Glen (Saint Lucia); Mohammad Amir, Ali Khan, Darren Bravo, Yannic Cariah (Trinbago).

That list includes four of the top five wicket-takers' peers and, notably, Tabraiz Shamsi (17 wickets) and David Wiese, Saint Lucia's 2025 captain — the Kings lost their captain, their leading spinner and Tim David in one off-season.

Notable arrivals: Wanindu Hasaranga and Dasun Shanaka (St Kitts); Noor Ahmad, Maheesh Theekshana and Charith Asalanka (Saint Lucia); Mohammad Nabi and Rahmanullah Gurbaz (Guyana); Shadab Khan and Kusal Perera (Antigua); Chris Green and George Linde (Barbados); Saim Ayub, Usman Khan and Kirk McKenzie (Jamaica); Matthew Breetzke (Trinbago).

Captains and coaches

TEAM	2025 CAPTAIN	2026 CAPTAIN	2025 COACH	2026 COACH
Antigua & Barbuda Falcons	Imad Wasim	Moeen Ali	Paul Nixon	not announced
Barbados (Royals → Tridents)	Rovman Powell	not announced	Trevor Penney	not announced
Guyana Amazon Warriors	Imran Tahir	not announced	Lance Klusener	not announced

St Kitts & Nevis Patriots	Jason Holder	not announced	Simon Helmot	not announced
Saint Lucia Kings	David Wiese	not announced	Daren Sammy	not announced
Trinbago Knight Riders	Nicholas Pooran	not announced	Dwayne Bravo	not announced

Only two 2026 captaincies are public: Moeen Ali at Antigua and Rovman Powell at Jamaica. Powell captained Barbados in 2025, so both confirmed captaincies are changes. Six of the seven coaching appointments for 2026 are unannounced as of 1 August 2026.

Draft rules, 2026

Squads of 17: nine West Indian, five overseas, three breakout players. The six returning teams each got four Right to Match options (three on any salary slot, one restricted to slots 7–17 and to a home-territory player). Jamaica got the first three picks, Jamaican players only, and could take just one player from an existing squad; any team losing a player to Jamaica received an extra RMO. Maximum four overseas players per match, minimum one breakout player.

5. Caveats

- Wikipedia's 2025 squad tables list the players signed pre-season. Several who appear in scorecards are not in them — Andries Gous, Rassie van der Dussen, Chris Green, Salman Irshad, Saurabh Netravalkar, Iftikhar Ahmed — so they were in-season signings or replacements. The movement counts in section 4 are built from the squad tables and will slightly understate churn.
- The 2026 squads were current as of the 25 July 2026 ESPNcricinfo report cited on the season page. Signings after that date are not reflected.
- 2026 coaching staff and captaincy are mostly unannounced; blank cells mean "not published", not "unchanged".
